The necessity of urging Congress to act favorably upon any pending legislation that will give to the street crossing men the same pension rights now enjoyed by members of the Metropolitan Police Department was shown by President McNamara, and the association voted to have its legislative committee communicate its wishes at once to the District Committee communicate its wishes at once to the District Committee of the House.

The resolution authorizing the donation of $10 to the Ippolito fund was made by Bernard F. Rover, who declared that the organization could not participate in a worther cause.

The association approved the campaign for a new nuncipal hospital, and passed a resolution urging its erection on the present site of the Washington Asylum.

Opposition to the proposed site at Fourteenth and Upshur streets northwest was voiced by President McNamara, who declared that Reservation its afforded a greater area upon which suitable buildings could be erected for the care and attention of the unfortunate inmates. He also advocated better street car service to the hospital.

sentiment on both questions was unanimously recorded.

A vote on the forum bills pending in Congress was taken on the recommendation of a special committee ordered to report on the subject at a previous meeting. The committee made an adverse report. This was adopted unanimously, with instruction that the committees of Congress and the school and District authorities be notified of the action.

Edward M. Dulia was appointed chairman of the committee on streets, alleys, and sidewalks, and Eugene M. Foster chairman of the publicity committee.

Secretary Nagel was instructed to write a letter to Colonel Harts, superintendent of public buildings and grounds, urging the improvement and beautification of the triangles along Pennsylvania avenue in the West End.

Resolutions will be presented to Congress urging the passage of a law compelling property owners to keep their chimneys clean of soot. Sooty chimneys are a source of fire danger to the community, in the opinion of the association entitling to representation shall have been met by the District.

Congress is to be asked by the Board of Trade to establish a political status for residents of the District of Columbia which will entitle the inhabitants of the national seat of Government to representation in the House of Representatives, Senate, and Electoral College, and give them such rights of citizenship as are necessary to permit them to sue and be sued in the courts of the United States. For the first time in its history the Soard of Trade, at a meeting last night at the Willard Hotel, took up the ques tion of representation for the District in Congress, and by a unanimous vote adopted a report on the political status of residents of the National Capital as presented by Theodore W. The large woman or the woman who considers herself an "Extra Size" sometimes feels that the manufacturers have not been as thoughtful of her needs as they have of her slenderer

The House of Kann believes that the "Extra Size" woman will gratefully change her mind after tomorrow, when she finds out how well we have prepared to look after her wants.

Not only are there many styles that are designed along lines that give the stout woman a more slendering effect, but there are also styles that are just as chic and in as smart styles in extra sizes as there are in the regular size garments, and the woman who is large but in perfect proportion has also been as fully remembered.

There has been no distinction between the materials in the extra size garments and the regular sizes. Every good fabric of the season is represented, as well as the desirable colors, and styles adapted from the most up-to-the-moment
